

PTO General Meeting April 8, 2015

6:04 President Ingrid Skop reiterated the purpose of PTO and reviewed past events: Grandfriends' day, Gingerbread houses, Bushnell party, running club, happy hours and reminded of upcoming events: Fiesta Fun Day/Fun Run/happy hours/Middle and Upper School Exam break goodies

Introduction of Current PTO council members.

Proposed new council members and distributed voting sheets.

Keystone Students Perform—Introduced by Head of School, Brian Yager.

Ms. Luckie—6th Grade iPads and Project C—Curiosity, creativity, compassion, collaboration, communication—not graded—available for viewing on websites. Cat Calendar was one entertaining example.

Science Fair Nia Clement's presentation examined the possibility that East Indian Sandalwood Oil (EISO) can kill AGS (Gastric Cancer Cell Line).

Lower School—leadership—Jeanette Vilagi—Grade 4: Clothes to SAM shelter, ONE changes everything

One Question, One hug, One friend, etc

4th graders Cobratics FLL (First Lego League) Qualifier (Legos and gears, robotics, computer programming) Robot Missions Video.

Model UN

Isuru Somawardana Science project : Cardiac Pacemakers—Limited time of 5 years due to Lithium batteries. Piezoelectric Nanogenerator more beneficial.

Sam Terry ended the evening with a dramatic recitation of memorized poetry. He is a finalist in Poetry Out Loud—a National Competition.