Library Visits

Students in grades Kindergarten through fourth grade come to the library once per week for an hour. The library routine includes a lesson, independent time and book check-out, and silent reading.

Check-Out Guidelines

Kindergarten students and first graders may check out one book at a time.
Second graders may check out up to two books at a time.
Third graders may check out up to three books at a time.
Fourth graders may check out up to four books at a time.
Parents may also request an account and check out up to ten books at a time.

Grade Level End-of-Year Objectives

Kindergarten:

- find fiction and nonfiction books in the library
- understand the process of checking out and returning books
- log in to library laptops
- use programs such as Tumblebooks and Starfall

First Grade

- find books on the fiction bridge shelves (short chapter books)
- go to the Keystone Library website, log into databases, and locate Britannica and World Book

Second Grade

- locate books using the library catalog and write down call numbers
- have a working understanding of the Dewey Decimal System
- log into Keystone databases and locate and use Britannica Elementary, World Book Kids, Facts on File Geography and Culture, and CultureGrams States Edition

Third Grade

- locate books by their call numbers
- log into Keystone databases and locate and use ProQuest SIRS and World Book Student.

Fourth Grade

- proficiently navigate the library website, using the catalog to locate books and the library databases for research.

All students are expected to follow library norms for quiet talk and silent reading.
